

Brayan

Age 15

This curious and polite fellow is Brayan! Getting engrossed in conversations with others comes easily for him, and he loves showing off his artistic side. Drawing is his best-loved expressive medium, but he is also keen on sewing. When asked to describe himself in five words, Brayan chose "smart, capable, strong, talented and outgoing." He is happiest when spending time with children the same age. This teen also enjoys time with adults. If he had one day to do anything that he wished, this teen would choose traveling. He would want to explore New York or Paris, especially the well known monuments like the Statue of Liberty or the Eifel Tower. Brayan's biggest dream is to go to college and have a good life.

As a ninth-grader, he enjoys interacting with his teachers and peers.

Brayan would do best in a home in which he is the oldest child in the home; however, his caseworker will consider all family types. Financial assistance may be available for adoption-related services.

This is a LEGAL RISK ADOPTIVE PLACEMENT.

For Colorado children, both home studied and non-home studied Colorado families are encouraged to inquire; only home studied families from other states should do so.
