Creative and passionate are two words to describe this friendly teen, Kylie! She has a love for poetry, arts and crafts, and storytelling. She finds joy in expressing herself through words and colors, especially her favorites, pink and black. Fascinated by wolves and foxes, Kylie sees beauty in the wild and mysterious. A big fan of Bucky from the Avengers, she often dreams of time travel and adventures beyond the ordinary. With a sweet tooth for chocolate cheesecake and a heart that beats to the rhythm of music, Kylie enjoys her quiet moments spent reading, writing poetry, and drawing. Determined and driven, she hopes to graduate from high school and attend trade school to study cosmetology or fashion, where she can let her creativity shine. Her dream is to live independently, travel the world, and give back by volunteering with animals or helping people experiencing homelessness, using her talents and compassion to make a difference wherever she goes.

Kylie is now in ninth grade and likes English class the most.
